GREAT BEND'S PRAIRIE.

That noted mud-lark Great Bend, by St. Blaise—Susquehanna, won the Prairie Selling Stakes at Harlem yesterday without the least bit of an effort, thereby enriching his owner $1,445. The distance of the Prairie Stakes is one mile and a sixteenth, which was quite a long route to send horses at top speed over a track that was as bad as Harlem was yesterday. The going was something terrible, the mud being about three inches deep and as sticky as glue.

All mud seems to look alike to Great Bend just so long as it is mud, and this being a well known fact to the talent it is no wonder that he was installed favorite at odds on over Prince Blazes, Found, Macy and Ohnet. The latter is a recent arrival from St. Louis, and is a shifty article himself in the mud. Found, as she always does, no matter how fast the company is that she is in with, went to the front at the start and tried her best to make a runaway race of it. She flew by the stand the first time at a terrific gait and led by five open lengths, passing the first quarter post. Down the backstretch Ohnet went after Found and at the half mile ground was within two lengths of her. Great Bend, in the meantime, was galloping along under a strong pull in third place. On the far turn both Found and Ohnet began to tire and Great Bend, plowing through the deep mud like a propeller through the water, had no trouble in passing them, and headed for home with a comfortable lead of a length and a half, which he increased to three lengths before the wire was reached. Macy, under the once famous jockey, Bergen, came like a whirlwind on the extreme inside through the stretch and ran the fast tiring Ohnet to a head for second place.

Jockey Tally was very much in evidence and out of five mounts succeeded in piloting three winners, finishing second once and third once. This is the same youth that went to sleep the other day on Silverdale, allowing Tyr to beat him by a nose, thereby drawing a fine for himself to the extent of $100. It seems his experience on Silverdale taught him a lesson, and since then never a finish has he attempted to draw fine.

Tally's best piece of riding was on Josephine B., whom he saved finely at the post and also rode with judgment throughout eventually gaining a nose victory over Lennep. The finish in this race was a very close one and those not in a direct line with the wire thought Lennep had won and made considerable noise over the judges' decision. But as a matter of fact Josephine B.'s nose loomed up as big as a house in front of Lennep. The latter is very speedy and has a fondness for heavy going and for a time it seemed that she was going to win off by herself, but in the stretch she began to tire and despite Bloss' strong effort he could not make her last quite long enough to win.

Those that followed form closely "cleaned up" on Obsidian in the third event. This big good looking son of Stromboli—Clara G. ran a cracking good race Wednesday and on paper seemed like a natural 8 to 5 chance, but for some unknown reason the ring, to its sorrow, made him a 4 to 1 chance, at which price the Foster Brothers horse was strongly backed. Master Tally rode Obsidian and going to the front on the first turn, he at once proceeded to make every post a winning one, and without an effort won by ten open lengths. J. J. T., driving to the limit, beat Blue Dan by a narrow margin for second place in the race.

"Brown Dick's" Etta seems to be "Hawkins' hoss" now and the way she disposed of The Unknown, Nobleman and Wax in the second race was pleasing to her backers. The filly loaded in behind The Unknown and Wax to the stretch and then coming with a rush caught and out-gamed The Unknown at the sixteenth post and at the end won by three-quarters of a length.

Sad Sam, in going precisely to his liking, and at the short route of four and one-half furlongs, managed to beat an ordinary lot of two-year-olds in the first race, and Pitfall, driving and staggering and long overdue, plodded home a half length in front of Martha Fox in the final mile selling race.

Pink Coat's western campaign has ended. Capt. A. C. Franklin will take the 1898 American Derby winner to Saratoga tomorrow night. With Pink Coat goes Alcedo, Tim Gainey and two of Schorr's horses.

Rome Respass, with a stable of nine horses, left Harlem last night for Sheephead Bay. In the lot are the following: Mr. Brown, Onomastus, Serrano, Frank Thompson, Passe, Cambrian, Onteloe, Legal Test and Elmer L. Jockey T. Knight accompanied the stable.

The gross valuation of the Prairie State Stakes was $1,440 and W. F. Gibson's share of it netted him $1,145.

By turnstile count there were 7,500 spectators present at Harlem yesterday.

ERWIN DEAD.

DETROIT, MICH., August 16.—The colt Erwin died at the Windsor track this morning of inflammation of the bowels. Erwin, when right, was a useful performer, with wins to his credit at New York, Chicago, San Francisco and on the Northern Circuit. He was a chestnut colt, 3, by His Highness—Vage, and was bred by Gideon & Daly.

TIME IN ENGLAND.

In a recent communication to a Lexington, Ky., publication, Mr. George Voorhies, lately returned from England, gives the following interesting statement about time made by horses in England:

In one of my letters from London last year I mentioned that I had timed Korosko, 3, 1 3 pounds, over the last mile of the Epsom course in 1:33%, and I saw afterward that one of your exchanges (Breeder & Sportsman) seemed to be a little skeptical as to the performance. Shortly afterwards Harrow, three years, and I, think, with 126 lbs., ran the mile at Lingfield in 1:35%. I do not know what weight Caiman carried the other day when he ran the mile at Lingfield in 1:33%, but I am sure that he made the distance a little faster than reported, because I have never seen a race timed by Benson's man that he did not time from the drop of the starter's flag when the horses are always a little back of the post, and in one instance he made the time nine seconds slower than the actual time, as in the case of New-haven II. in the City and Suburban he gave the time as 2:18%, while I timed the race in 2:09%. I was within ten feet of the finish and could clearly see the horses pass the starting post.

On this year's Derby day Mr. Al Hall of Sacramento, Cal., and myself timed Giglio over the last mile at Epsom in 1:34, and Bridge three-quarters in 1:06 2-3, and Virginia Earl five-eighths in 56 2-5 seconds, and at Brighton this year Clarendon, three years, 106 pounds, won the Brighton Cup, 1 1-4 miles, and did the distance, according to Benson chronograph, in 2:04 1-5. Then Piety in 1898 won the Alexandra Plate, three miles, with 132 pounds, in 5:26; while Faugh-a-Ballagh, with 1:27 pounds, ran three miles in 5:26, nearly twenty years before Norfolk made his "world's record" in 5:27 with only 100 pounds up.

So in looking over the records made by horses in the different countries it would seem that our turf correspondents should be more careful

He was always running easily after passing the half mile post, where Favonius quit. Radford ran a good race, but Favonius should have been second. He swerved badly under the whip in the last furlong. Gonfalon ran kindly to the three-quarters and then sulked.
Scratched—20058 Intrusive, 119; 19913 First Whip, 110; (19913) Peaceful, 107.

Went to post at 2:38. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won ridden out; second handily. Lady Schorr won on sufferance. Alard Scheck could have won if Burns had so desired. He was under a restraining pull all the way. Lady Schorr was the best of the others, but was doing her best all the way. The Musketeer seemed dangerous in the last furlong, but tired. Burns moved up close, then when Lady Schorr drew away took another wrap. Tammany Chief was outrun in the first part of the race but closed strongly. Maximus, like the rest of Hildreth's horses, is off. Rivenok was outrun all the way.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 13 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Cyrano was given a good ride by Clawson. He was under the whip all through the last quarter and just got up in time. Lady Contrary should have won. She had the race cinched, but Henry went to sleep near the finish and never saw Cyrano apparently, as he made no move. Gala Day can do better. He got off well, but was taken back. Loiter ran the best race. While at the post he ran away a quarter in a break, then ran a furlong and ran away several times for short distances. He showed much speed to the last furlong and then tired. Terrorist, off ninth, gradually improved his position and ran a good race. Cupidity broke down.

TIME IN ENGLAND.

about claiming the world's records as they do every day for our horses.

I do not consider Caiman's mile, 1:33%, as wonderful. I am sure that Cyllene or Flying Fox or Knight of the Thistle could last year have covered the Lingfield mile in 1:33 or better with 126 pounds up. There are several horses in England on the turf this year that can beat Caiman at a mile. I am also certain that the horse that does the Lingfield mile in 1:33 can not do a mile up the Cambridgeshire course better than 1:40. I am also positive on one thing, and that is, that all the courses in England, except the miles at Lingfield, Brighton, and at Epsom, are from two to four seconds slower than our scraped tracks with their thrown up turns.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Under peculiar circumstances John Hooks, nineteen years old, a jockey of Baltimore, Md., in the employ of Hardy Durham, was drowned at Coney Island Tuesday. He was swimming the racehorse Marito in the ocean when the animal became fractious and carried Hooks far out to sea. The jockey was unable to turn the horse and finally fell from the animal's back.

He was kicked by the horse and drowned before aid could reach him. His body was recovered by life savers.

Hooks was well known about the race tracks of the east, and had made arrangements to go to Saratoga next Saturday. One of the best horses in Durham's stable was Marito, and Hooks was much attached to the animal. Horse and man had been in the ocean for perhaps twenty minutes when the animal became fractious, kicking up his heels. Then the horse started seaward. Hooks made every effort to turn the animal's head shoreward, but without success. Hooks was unable to keep his seat on the horse's back. He was unable to swim and sank almost immediately.

After the drowning the horse could not be induced to come ashore, and a mounted policeman forced his own horse into the ocean after the fractious animal. It required several minutes' work to get Marito ashore.—New York Herald.

FEATHERSTONE'S LUCK.

One of the greatest racing disappointments of the season thus far has been the stable of Arthur Featherstone, the Chicago millionaire, who was supposed in the early spring to have nearly every stake event in which he had entered at his mercy. Mesmerist, the son of Albert and Hoodoo, had been heralded far and wide as the coming 3-year-old king of the turf, despite the fact that not a single one of the sire's get had proven to be a stayer in good company, while in Missionary the stable was thought to have another world-beater of the same age. Among the fillies Indian Fairy was looked upon as being practically unbeatable, while Black Fox was said to be an equine marvel as a 2-year-old. The stable was taken east with a great flourish of trumpets. At the little Kentucky station from which they were shipped a great crowd assembled to see them off, and the oldest turfmen in the bluegrass region declared that a grander lot of thoroughbreds had never before been assembled under one management in the history of "old Kentucky." The much-touted Mesmerist proved to be the biggest sort of a disappointment. He was as faint hearted as a bashful lover, and could not win from even a fair selling plater when the distance was six furlongs or over. His first time out stamped him as being a counterfeiter of the worst sort, and he has done nothing since to change the opinion that was then formed of him. Missionary, the royally bred son of Hanover, that cost Mr. Featherstone $9,500 as a yearling, has proven to be but little faster than a cart horse up to the present time. Indian Fairy was early put on the shelf for repairs and Black Fox went wrong after showing in his first race that he was one of the best 2-year-olds of the year. Following this came three suspensions for the stable jockey, Winnie O'Connor, who is generally regarded as one of the best of the eastern jockeys. Many owners would long ago have become discouraged by such a combination of misfortunes and disappointments. Not so Mr. Featherstone, however, who has gone ahead and done the best that he could with the other members of his string, and who now announces his intention of following the fashion set by Lorillard, Keene, Croker, Corrigan and others and of racing in England next season. That the Chicago man will take a strong stable across the big pond is not to be doubted. He has always been noted as a liberal buyer, money being no object to him when a racehorse strikes his fancy, and he may therefore be expected to take with him on his trip one of the strongest and best stables that money will buy.—Exchange.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second handily. Topmast was slow to get into his stride, but when he did start to running he soon ran past his field. At the end, however, he had to do his best. Beau Ideal ran a much improved race over his last one. Miss Soak ran her race and tired at the end. Fannie Taylor and Fantasy ran below their true form.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving to the limit; second, third and fourth the same. Sad Sam liked the heavy going and as the race was run was best. He has a habit of bearing out at the head of the stretch and did so in this race. Woodstick ran gamely making up much ground under a terrific drive through the stretch. Shut Up got away poorly but ran a good race, being much used early. Icon, on the extreme inside, quit almost to a walk in the stretch. Oscar showed a flash of speed on the far turn but died away at the end.
Scratched—19908 Hampshire, 106; 20022 Glove, 103; 19993 Lake View Belle, 103; 19993 Reacher, 103.

Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break. Start good. Won driving to the limit and all out; second the same. Etta was best ridden. There was no choice in the going and Tally saved much ground and won the race by not swinging out at the head of the stretch as the other boys did. The Unknown liked the going and seemed to have plenty of speed, but hung when the pinch came. Nobleman was ridden all over the track. Wax was raced into submission trying to race with The Unknown. He swerved at the end.
Etta, place, 11 to 10. The Unknown, place, 1 to 2. Nobleman, place, evens. Wax, place, 6 to 5.

Went to post at 3:35. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easing up. Obsidian ran true to form, revealed in the going and had an easy time of it throughout. He is now in his best form and will be hard to beat in the mud. J. T. had a rough journey. He finished stoutly under pressure and barely got up in time to be second. Blue Dan liked the going and was right there all the way. Thomas Carey made a bid on the stretch turn, but died away at the end. Walkenshaw seems to be of little or no present account. Tyrba showed speed.
Scratched—20028 Dandy H., 104.

Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; it was a terrific drive between the next two. Great Bend was in fine form, was well ridden and came away finely when called upon in the stretch. He is a mudlark of high degree. Ohnet ran a cracking good race under a poorly judged ride. McGinn used him too much in the first part of the race and was of little or no help to him when the pinch came. Macy ran a good honest race. Found set a terrific pace in the first part of the race, but stopped badly in the stretch. Prince Blazes was beaten off all the way and showed no high speed.
Scratched—19993 The Lady, 96.

Winner—B. f. by Falsetto—Patroness.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second the same. Josephine B. displayed great gameness and barely got up in time to win. She is particularly fond of mud and in her best form. Lennep was stopping badly at the end. She showed a lot of speed, was well handled and did her very best. Banish refused to break away from the post and was the cause of the delay. He showed some speed, but hardly ran up to expectations. Branch seemed to founder in the going and did not near run his race. Annowan made up some ground in the stretch.
Josephine B., place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Lennep, place, 2½ to 1; show, evens. Banish, show, 2 to 5. Branch, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Went to post at 5:25. Off at the second break to a perfect start. Won driving and staggering; second and third also under keen pressure. Pitfall liked the heavy going, was lucky, well ridden, and managed to last long enough to stagger home. Martha Fox would have won with a stronger rider up. Seaton was of no help to her when help was needed. Marion Lynch bumped her way through on the first turn and had a rough journey generally and was undoubtedly the best. Joe Shelby's racing days are about over. The field was badly strung out after they had gone the first quarter of a mile.

Overweights—Nairete, 2 pounds; Interferer, 2; Moch, 2½.
Pitfall, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Martha Fox, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Marion Lynch, show, evens. Joe Shelby, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Landry waited until the last furlong before making his run with Edith. He saved ground with her entering the stretch and rode a good finish. Toad Rainy was possibly best and she might have won had Castro not allowed her to go wide in the stretch turn. She finished on the extreme outside. Siroister could not give away the weight. He showed speed but tired when the pinch came. Cupa would have been third in another stride.

Time, 26, 50, 1:17, 1:42.

Winner—Ch. m, by Chorister—Daphne.
Went to post at 4:16. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The slow pace suited Lady of the West. This enabled Weber to rate her along in the first part of the race and she came fast through the stretch and won drawing away. Baffled lacked his usual speed. He came around his horses at the furlong post and was under a drive all through the stretch. Magog did well. Alex wore himself out at the post and was tiring and falling back at the end.
Overweights—Magog, 5 pounds.
Lady of the West, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Baffled, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Magog, show, 3 to 1. Alex, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:15.

Winner—Ch. c, by Inspector B.—Nitetis.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Left Bower fought it out gamely all through the last furlong and barely managed to last long enough. Nancy Till was out off on the backstretch. She then came all around her field. Landry was overconfident. Had he gone to work sooner he might have won. Rey Salazar tired. He, too, had to go around the field to get to the front. McQuade out-finished Jones when it came to a drive. R. Q. Ban was in a pocket most of the way. Crinkle was cut off at the far turn and knocked out of it. Miss Fonsley was probably short.
Scratched—19985 Jennie, 100.
Overweights—Sakatuck, 1 pound.
Left Bower, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Nancy Till, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Rey Salazar, show, 5 to 1. R. Q. Ban, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c, by Juvenal—Auricoma.
Went to post at 5:34. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jucoma finished strongly and drew away in the last eighth. Sackhen showed early speed but quit as usual when challenged. Queen Anne did her best. Hermencia closed a big gap from a bad beginning but ran out in the stretch. Ice Drop would not break and was as good as left.
